CMBA Skills Profile™

CMBA Skills Profile™ Interpretation:

The CMBA exam is designed to yield a singular pass / fail result. Therefore, no numeric scores are presented. The CMBA Skills Profile chart above provides you with a graphical summary of your relative strengths and weaknesses in the ten subject areas covered on the CMBA exam. The profile also provides the Overall CMBA Exam result. The results represented by the CMBA Skills Profile are relative only to oneself, and should not be interpreted as a percentile ranking.

The vertical center line of the Skills Profile chart differentiates your performance between "Less Proficient" and "More Proficient." The center mark of each confidence interval bar (the shaded bar) represents your performance on each subject area on this exam. The shaded area to both sides of this center mark represents one conditional standard error. If the center mark of the "Overall CMBA Exam" bar is to the right of the center line, it indicates you have passed the exam. If the center mark of the "Overall CMBA Exam" bar is to the left of the center line, it indicates you did not pass the exam.

The CMBA Skills Profile is provided to you as a personal assessment tool, to strengthen and further develop your MBA skills. You may want to focus future study on areas to the left of or close to the center line of the Skills Profile.
